Consultations: Immediately after class or by appointment.

Attendance: Students must be punctual and attend all classes- if you are late, inform instructor after class to be marked present. If the student misses more than two (2) classes without a documented medical reason or family emergency leave, then they are subject to receiving an "F" for the course. It is up to the student to fill out the proper paperwork with the college if they are withdrawing from the class prior to the withdrawal due date.

Performance Evaluation: Students that miss an examination will receive an "F" for that exam. Students that miss a project presentation will receive an "F" for that presentation. Students are required to come to class prepared. It is the responsibility of the student to gain all material covered and homework assigned.

Three (3) Examinations (each at 25%):	75%
Project Presentation:	25%
A	90-100	Exceptional work
B	80-89	Above average work
C	70-79	Average class standard

Student Regulations: As stated in the Broward Community College Catalog, students are expected to strictly adhere to “academic honesty” and not to breach copyright laws. Students are required to act as not to disrupt the academic performance and education of another. It is up to the student to understand all the rights and obligations in the Broward Community College Catalog. Remember, your education is dependent upon what you put into it.

Writing Requirements for Gordon Rule:

This class is a writing-credit class. As written per Broward Community College:

“In order to comply with the Gordon Rule, all students are required to demonstrate college-level writing skills in their two (2) required composition courses and any other two (2) courses designated as carrying writing credit. In all writing-credit courses, students should expect essay tests, in-class writing, and/or formal written presentation of material relevant to the content of the course. The word count has been eliminated”.

Note:

All assignments and information pertinent to the course will be either handed out in class or emailed to your bcc address (check this often). If you miss class or lose the material, it is your responsibility to obtain the material. For your convenience only, I make every effort to post the material (but cannot guarantee that it will be updated) on my website: www.geministudios-miami.com.
